I'm a ... rambler, I'm a rambler from Manchester way

D

I get all my pleasure the hard moorland way

I may be a wage slave on Monday, but I am a free man on Sunday

He called me a louse and said "Think of the grouse".

Well, I thought, but I still couldn't see

Why old Kinder Scout and the moors roundabout couldn't take both the poor grouse and me

He said "All this land is my master's". At that I stood shaking my head

No man has the right to own mountains any more than the deep ocean bed

I'm a ... rambler, I'm a rambler from Manchester way

I get all my pleasure the hard moorland way

I may be a wage slave on Monday, but I am a free man on Sunday

So I'll walk where I will over mountain and hill and I'll lie where the bracken is deep

I belong to the mountains, the clear running fountains where the grey rocks lie ragged and steep

I've seen the white hare in the gulleys and the curlew fly high overhead

And sooner than part from the mountains, I think I would rather be dead. .

I'm a ... rambler, I'm a rambler from Manchester way

I get all my pleasure the hard moorland way

I may be a wage slave on Monday,

With my little stick of Blackpool Rock, a-long the promenade I stroll.

In my pocket it got stuck I could tell

Cos when I pulled it out I pulled my shirt off as well

Every day wher-ever I stray the kids all round me flock

A girl while bathing clung to me, my wits I'd to use

She cried, "I'm drowning, and to save me, you won't refuse"

I said, "Well if you're drowning then I don't want to lose

My little stick of Blackpool Rock."

With my little stick of Blackpool Rock, a-long the promenade I stroll.

In the ballroom I went dancing each night

No wonder every girl I danced with stuck to me tight

Every day wher-ever I stray the kids all round me flock

A fella' took my photograph it cost one and three.

I said when it was done, "Is that sup-posed to be me?"

You've properly mucked it up the only thing I can see is

My little stick of Blackpool Rock. Lordy lordy

My little stick of Blackpool Rock.
